1. Psalm 126: God is getting ready turn our captivity; we are being prepared to be set free of some things. Our lives will transition from busy to productive.
2. Hosea: 10:12: God is getting ready turn our captivity; we are being prepared to be set free of some things. Our lives will transition from busy to productive.
3. Colossians 2:18-19: The power of fellowship is not underestimated by the enemy. That is why he tries so vehemently to turn children against parents and spouse against spouse and people against people. He is always looking to keep us from truly connecting with one another. Most importantly, he tries to make us so busy that we cannot connect with God.

Rules of Engagement for victorious Spiritual Warfare

1. Philippians 2:5: Before soldiers learn the "Rules of Engagement" they must first be indoctrinated into the ways of the military organization they have joined. We are in the army of the Lord and we have several weapons starting with the mind. Jesus is of course our chief paradigm for warfare. We know and realize, the first thing that must be changed is the way we think.
2. Romans 12:1-2: Paul being engaged in warfare said this throughout scripture in several different ways.
3. Luke 9:23-24: We are told by Paul to lay down our lives which is the same thing Jesus said when He was training His disciples for warfare.
4. 2 Timothy 2:3-4: We must be equipped and trained for warfare.
5. James 4:7: Submission to God is very important
6. 1 Colossians 3:1-11: My challenge then is now to motivate you to be recruiters, examples and to be faithful to the task. That means to help the others in the faith to know what is going on.

1. Isaiah 54:17: It is imperative that as Christians we develop a pension for trouble. We have to learn how to go through situations and circumstances relying on the grace of God.
2. 2 Timothy 3:16-17: A soldier must know how to use his weapons efficiently. Commit yourselves to study.
3. Ephesians 6:10-15: The devil has tricks and we have what it takes to overcome the tricks. But we must use them.
4. 2 Samuel 23:13-17: We can overcome great odds by the arm of God.

January 21, 2011: Journal

1. John 4:23-24: We must have a lifestyle of worship. This intensifies our relationship with God.
2. Acts 20:3b: Give your best worship
3. Colossians 1:13-18: Jesus has already set us up to defeat the enemy through Him.
4. Colossians 2:1-15: Not only is Jesus our Head but He has triumphed over the devil in every way possible giving us a preeminent victory if we abide in Him.
5. Important note about worship:

True worshipers do not look for a place to be seen they look for a place to serve. They do not look for the place of honor; but they crouch under a cloak of humility. True worshipers live amongst us and you will know them by the fruit they bear. They use their fruit to bless other people and to honor the presence of God. True worshipers don't mind being in the back as long as God is in the front. They do not seek fame or fortune; but fame and fortune will follow them. They are blessed and highly favored by God because their glory is to lift up the name of the Father in action and deed. God responds by releasing a "stupid favor" over their lives and they respond by helping other people seek His face. They believe that everyone should live in this grace of God and be blessed each joint supplying what the other one needs.

1. Gods says that any true move of God will yield True Worshipers as a bi-product of His cleansing power. We ought to desire every part of what we just heard and more. These aforementioned characteristics are just a portion of the lifestyle of a true worshiper, a tip, a glimpse, a shadow of His impending presence. Case in point, we can have all the church accolades and people patting us on the back telling us how wonderful we are but; if God is not looking for us, we are in trouble. In closing, I believe this consecration is a true move of God and it will yield the peaceable fruit of His righteousness namely a latter day church filled with God Chasers. It will yield True Worshipers who love and are expecting nothing in return but the approval of God. They possess a lifestyle of worship that will bring the thrones, principalities and dominions to their knees for a season so that the glory of God can be revealed in the earth. God is going to lift the veil of darkness off His churches and cities and reveal His manifest glory through His people.

It is not about your!

1. Psalm 139:23-24
2. 1 Corinthians 11:28
3. Psalm 51:6-7

What will you do better?

January 23, 2011: Journal

1. Psalm 84:11
2. Romans 12:18

I feel like ringing the supper bell and saying “dinner is ready; who wants to be blessed?”! Unfortunately, nothing in life is that simple; but Jesus left us a Helper (the Holy Spirit) to aid us in managing our roles in this transformation process. However, the Helper can only operate where He has been given authority by us. We invited Him in; but we must give Him access to every room in our spiritual temple. I heard it put like this one day, “we all have some pad locks on some rooms in our house and we have not given the Holy Spirit access.” Tonight we want to break some generational curses. Tonight we want to smoke the enemy out of our spiritual houses and all we have to do is give the Holy Spirit complete access to our temples so He can purge the inner man. “Carpe diem”, seize the day. It is yours for the taking. This spiritual surgery may hurt us a little; but we will be blessed in the end. We can start this regenerative process by creating a list of all the things that you know and/or think are hindering your growth in the Lord. I will name a few things to get the ball rolling:

- unforgiveness, (who am I privately angry with in my spirit?);
- confessions, (I have an aught against someone or a problem; but I never told them.);
- unhealed wounds, (someone hurt me years ago but I never let it go and my dealings with them to this day are based on that past pain).

Now here is the clincher the only thing that keeps us from dealing with these situations now is pride. Pride is like scar tissue that has healed over thick it is covering the wound that has healed improperly. It really hurts to cut through pride. If pride is stopping your floodgate from heaven then pride needs to die.

When you read the above mentioned sins the first person or persons that came to your heart need to be addressed; God is trying to release us. Release unlocks the uncollected assets of heaven! Let's go again. Some of us need to release humility through the act of apologizing to people you know you have offended or any act of potentially harmful verbal aggression from spouses, to children to co-workers and fellow ministry members etc... The act of apologizing heals you and it restores the peace of God and it also unlocks the held up blessings ready to be released over your life.

Moreover, we all need to continue to ask God for forgiveness for years of abusing His grace and we all need to recommit to prayer, fasting, the study of God's Word, honoring our ministry obligations, attendance in corporate studies like DTS, Sunday school, Wednesday night worship,

Men of Vision; Women of Excellence; Minister's class; Teen ministry and children. We need to commit to the things God has revealed to us to do in and outside of the house of God instead of waiting for someone else to do what God called you to do. Recommit to family, spouse and if your single, holy living.

Finally, we need to commit or recommit to giving tithes, offering and missions and the ministry of excellence concerning time, leadership, and faithfulness. Lastly, ask God to kill anything in us that is not like Him, just like He killed the Egyptians never to be seen again. Lord teach us how to live life abundantly in Jesus' name.
